

A municipality need not reduce its allowable levy by the amount of fee revenue or PILOTs it receives if the voters approve in a referendum a resolution stating that the community's levy limit does not need to be reduced when the community converts to paying for the service by a fee.